

Membership renewal 2019-20

Dear Member

Your subscription for 2019-20 is due on 1 April. (Unless you joined after 30 September 2018 when you are covered already until 2020.) By renewing promptly, you will not only be showing that you still care about and support the Society's aims and activities, but save us the trouble of sending out any reminders!

We very much appreciate your support. Listed are the various ways you can now renew your subscription. Once again, rates remain unchanged. We also highlight some of the things your membership goes towards.

Amongst our achievements of the last few months and plans for the future are:

- Organising a conference and celebration for the 50th anniversary of the St Albans Conservation Area in July 2019
- Providing training and information seminars for planners and councillors
- Commenting on and influencing the council on planning applications
- Recognising good design in the city through our Annual Awards
- Working with the Herts Advertiser to promote Heritage Open Days
- Consulting members on the issues that concern them to help determine our priorities

- Organising Talks, Social Events and Visits
- Producing a quarterly newsletter available in printed and electronic format
- Supporting local projects and Residents' Associations concerns

The current rates of subscription are:

Individual	£10
Family (2 or more)	£15
Pensioner/Student/Unwaged	£7
Residents' Association	Free
Corporate	£50
